

I try to love others as I love myself

Jesus wants us to love and care for others just as he loves and cares for us.

When Jesus was asked which was the most important rule he said, “First, love God, Second, love everyone else as much as your self.

Think for a moment, is there anything you can do today to show your love for others?

These are the most important rules.
The Gospel of the Lord

How do you show love to others?
