

I know how to show I am sorry

Our act of worship this week is going to help us think about different ways in which we can show we are sorry.

The story about Zacchaeus is found in Luke's gospel. Zacchaeus said sorry to Jesus for all the money he had stolen and he told Jesus how he was going to show he was sorry.

O My God, I am sorry that I have sinned against you and with the help of your grace I will not sin again.

It is important that we know how to say sorry and are willing to show this. It is good to know that Jesus is very pleased and happy when we say sorry and want to change.
